

Ephesians 4:11-16

¹¹ So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, ¹² to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up ¹³ until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

¹⁴ Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of people in their deceitful scheming. ¹⁵ Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. ¹⁶ From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.

Hebrews 10: 23-25

²³ Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. ²⁴ And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, ²⁵ not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

CALL TO WORSHIP

LEADER: We are pulled in many directions.

PEOPLE: Many duties and tasks seek to lay claim on our lives.

LEADER: Today, in this place, let service to God be our choice.

PEOPLE: Today in this place, we open our hearts and spirits to God.

Leader: Hear us Lord, as we unite in prayer:

ALL: O Lord, there never seems to be enough time to do all the things that are demanded of us. Our schedules are busy, as we live by the clock. Forgive us, Lord, for making you a scheduled event which we tend to erase when something else comes our way. Help us realize with you as our focus, all things pale in comparison. AMEN.
